

Eastern Aleutian Tribes, Incorporated

Position: Mid-Level Practitioner/ Clinical Instructor
Reports to: Director of Primary Care
Location: Eastern Aleutian Tribes Service Area
Pay Grade: Exempt
Date: March 1997, rev. Feb 2003

Purpose of Position:

To provide preventative, primary and emergency care and work as a team with other health care providers, CHA/P, CHR and first response team to ensure continuity and quality community health care.

Major Responsibilities:

- Provides leadership, guidance, supervision and mentorship to the Community Health Aides
- Provide direct care to patients who present for services.
- Ensures that evaluation treatment and follow-up are congruent with the operational and clinical standards as established by the region.
- Actively participates in the clinic weekly team meetings, providing expertise and receiving peer support and supervision.
- Works with the local health care team, ensure that the pharmacy and laboratory meet the operational standard requirements established by the region.
- Works with the local health care team providing input and participation in the development and review of clinical protocols and ambulatory care operational standards.
- Participates in and help facilitate the quality assurance system.
- Actively promotes the development of clinical expertise of yourself and co-workers.
- Ensures full compliance of all corporate policies.
- Completes necessary reports as requested by the Medical Coordinator.
- Collaborates with the Tribal Council in problem solving and QA issues.

Qualifications:

- Mid-Level Practitioner
- Certified with several years experience in primary and Emergency Care.
- ACLS certification
- Experience in rural cross culture setting preferred.

I have read and understood the requirements of this position and agree to abide by them.

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Witness: _____ Date: _____

Review Date: _____ Executive Director: _____